AN EXHIBITION IN ELEVEN VOICES

The Company We Keep

A gathering of distinct voices

The Company We Keep brings together eleven artists whose work speaks in distinctly different visual languages. Painting, sculpture, drawing and digital print share a space in which figuration meets abstraction, storytelling meets material experiment, and colour and form are free to take their own paths.

Rather than insisting upon a common style, the exhibition invites us to look at what happens when independent creative voices are placed in conversation.

VISIT THE EXHIBITION

An invitation to look again.

Based in Ealing, Felix & Spear brings contemporary artistic practice into dialogue with Modern British and post-war art. The gallery's programme is guided by close looking, curiosity and an interest in the many histories that shape how art is made and seen.
